

CALSTRS®

HOW WILL YOU SPEND YOUR FUTURE?

The California State Teachers' Retirement System, Office of the General Counsel is seeking two motivated individuals to work as a Senior Litigation Counsel (Attorney III) and a Litigation Counsel (Attorney) in the Litigation Unit.

Under the general direction of the Assistant General Counsel and the General Counsel, the Litigation Counsel works with broad discretion and independence with minimum supervision and is expected to be an expert in litigation and in the more complex areas of the Teachers' Retirement Law. The Senior Litigation Counsel is responsible for performing complex and sensitive legal services in connection with CalSTRS activities, and will represent CalSTRS in, and/or oversee and work with outside counsel on, administrative hearings, writ proceedings, litigation, and other legal proceedings.

Does this opportunity seem right for you? If so, see the Application Instructions:
