

Public Retirement/Government Law Attorney

Olson Remcho LLP, California's leading political, election, and government law firm with offices in Sacramento, Oakland, and Long Beach, is seeking an attorney with 3-7 years of experience providing legal advice to public retirement systems, at either a private law firm or in-house at a public retirement system. The ideal candidate will thrive working on challenging legal and compliance issues in a dynamic work environment and will enjoy building strong relationships with clients. Candidates must have excellent research, writing and interpersonal skills, a strong academic background, be detail-oriented, and able to work both independently and as part of a team. Expertise in advising public retirement system boards and staff on plan administration and fiduciary issues and as well as conflicts of interest, open meeting and public records laws are all highly desirable.

We provide competitive salaries, an excellent benefits package, and a collegial workplace. Olson Remcho places a high value on increasing diversity in our workplace. Full COVID vaccination required. We allow flexibility with a mix of in-office and remote work as appropriate.

Please send a cover letter, resume, and your best writing sample to recruiting@olsonremcho.com.