Associate Position

Sugarman & Susskind is a well-established law firm with 8 attorneys founded nearly thirty-five (35) years ago located in Miami, Florida. Our firm's primary practices include labor and employment and employee benefits. We represent both private sector (i.e. Taft Hartley plans) and public pension plans, health and wellness funds and VEBA's serving as general counsel advising the Board of Trustees on plan design, statutory compliance, benefit eligibility, tax code qualification, investment management, litigation, as well as all other operational and administrative matters requiring legal analysis. We are seeking to hire an associate with 0-5 years of experience. The applicant should be available to begin in the immediate future. The applicant will be given the opportunity to shape a career as an employee benefits lawyer. The applicant will have the opportunity for immediate client contact on a frequent basis and will have the opportunity to take a primary role advising clients within a short period of time. Our firm is committed to collaborative process and our attorneys participate and foster a "team" environment ensuring our clients receive the best ideas from varying perspectives.
